

The new lot is now open for public use and provides commuters a place to park for carpooling purposes. Users can access this lot from State Street just south of the new intersection with 2100 North. At this time, UTA does not plan to provide bus service to this new lot.

